describe, character, analysis | • Where/Who/What anchor chart (from Lesson 2)
• Mid-Unit 1 Assessment: Character Analysis of Peter Pan (Chapter 6) (one per student)
• Mid-Unit 1 Assessment: Character Analysis of Peter Pan (answers, for teacher reference)
• Classic Starts edition of Peter Pan (book; one per student and one for teacher use)
• Peter Pan journals (students’ own)
• Tracking My Progress, Mid-Unit 1 recording form (one per student)

Opening

A. Engage the Reader: Where/Who/What Anchor Chart for Chapter 6 (5 minutes)
• Invite the class to the whole group area. Direct their attention to the Where/Who/What anchor chart. Ask students to share with the whole class their ideas for the important characters, events, and settings in Chapter 6.
• Invite students to share any words they would like to add to the Character Wall.

B. Unpacking the Learning Targets (5 minutes)
• Congratulate students on all of their hard work thinking deeply about the characters in the Peter Pan text. Review the words describe, character, and analysis if needed:
  – describe: explain specific details about someone or something
  – character: someone in a book (could be a human or animal or a even a magical creature)
  – analysis: a close study of a something; figuring out its most important qualities
• Tell students that they will continue work on analyzing a character, but today everyone will think deeply about the main character, Peter Pan. Peter Pan will be such a fun character to analyze because he has unique traits and motivations that lead him to take important actions in the story!
A. On Demand Mid-Unit Assessment: Creating a Character Analysis of the Character of Peter Pan (35 minutes)

- Ask students to Think-Pair-Share the three aspects of character they have studied so far. Listen for students to use the words traits, motivations, and actions. After a minute of discussion, cold call a few students to share these aspects.

- Tell them that today they will again be character detectives: investigating one character closely to find his traits, motivations, and important actions and collecting evidence to support their thinking.

- Tell students that just like yesterday, they will complete an analysis of a character from the text. Remind them that they will all analyze Peter Pan. Unlike other days where they worked in groups, they will work independently today. This is their chance to show how well they can analyze a character on their own.

- Distribute the Mid-Unit 1 Assessment: Character Analysis of Peter Pan (Chapter 6) and the Peter Pan text. Answer any lingering questions and invite students to begin their assessment once they understand the task.

- If students finish their assessment early, they should continue their independent reading for the unit.

- Do not collect students’ recording forms yet; they will need them during the lesson debrief.

B. Tracking My Progress (10 minutes)

- Gather the class whole group. Ask them to bring their Peter Pan journals.

- Distribute the Tracking My Progress, Mid-Unit 1 recording form. Explain to students that they are going to have the opportunity to reflect on their progress on the learning target: “I can describe the characters in a story (traits, motivations, feelings).” Ask students to think, then talk with a partner: “We’ve done this kind of reflection before. What is one thing you notice about this reflection sheet? What is it asking you to do?”

- Then cold call one or two students to identify what they noticed about the reflection sheet.

- Give students time to complete their Tracking My Progress recording form. (Have students use their Peter Pan journals as a hard surface for writing.) Collect students’ recording forms to review along with their paragraph writing to see how accurate their self-assessments are.

Meeting Students’ Needs

- Provide extra time for ELLs and other students to complete this assessment.

- Use thoughtful pairings for the vocabulary activity.

- Consider writing and breaking down multistep directions into numbered elements. Students can return to these guidelines to make sure they are on track.

Closing and Assessment

A. Share: Analysis of Peter Pan (5 minutes)
• Invite students back together and ask them to bring their Mid-Unit 1 Assessment. Ask them to stand up and form a triad with two other students.
• Once students are in their small groups, explain the sharing process:
  – Select one section (trait, motivation, action) from your recording form to share with your group.
  – Take turns sharing that part of your recording form.
  – Once everyone has shared, discuss the last question on your recording form. Make sure everyone in your group has the chance to say why they think Peter Pan is an important character.
• If time permits, ask a few students to share their responses to the final synthesis question.

Homework

• Continue reading in your independent reading book for this unit at home.
