Opening

A. Reviewing Homework and Engaging the Reader (5 minutes)

• Ask students to take out their Independent Reading Choice Boards then gather whole group
• Review the procedure for Milling to Music with students. Provide clarification as needed.
• Ask students to quickly mill to find a partner who is not a member of their regular group. Once students are paired up, ask them to share the question and response they completed on their choice boards for homework.
• After 2 or 3 minutes, invite several students to share out interesting ideas they heard from their partner.
• Then say something like: “Today you will complete the Mid-Unit 1 Assessment by reading the last four pages of Max Axiom, and answering some questions that allow you to show what you have learned about visual elements and how they contribute to the overall meaning of the ideas presented in a graphic novel. You will also get to flex your vocabulary muscles during today’s assessment and demonstrate your ability to use a variety of strategies to figure out the meaning of new words.”

B. Reviewing Learning Targets
- Display and read or invite volunteers to read each learning target aloud. Ask students to pay attention to familiar vocabulary words from the target and be ready to share the meaning.
  - “I can explain how visual elements add meaning to the description of the scientific problem Max Axiom will encounter next.”
  - “I can determine the meaning of new words using a variety of strategies.”
- Ask students to discuss with group members the important vocabulary from the targets that they recognize.
- Invite a volunteer from each group to share at least one word and its meaning.
- If not mentioned in the discussion, bring the words visual elements, problem, encounter, analyze, variety, and strategies to students’ attention. Listen for students to offer definitions such as:
  - “Visual elements are what I can see in the book, such as pictures, colors, and text.”
  - “A problem is a difficulty, trouble, or dilemma.”
  - “Encounter is a verb meaning to meet or face.”
  - “Analyze means to examine or study closely.”
  - “Variety means a mixture or assortment.”
  - “Strategies are plans or approaches to challenges.”

Meeting Students’ Needs
- To support students’ understanding of the first target, model the process of viewing an image and thinking of a hint.
- To support ELL students, consider drawing a picture or locating an image from the Internet to show the meaning of each key term.
Work Time

A. Mid-Unit 1 Assessment: Analyzing Visual Elements in a Graphic Novel (35 minutes)

- Give students an appropriate amount of time and support to locate the materials needed to complete the mid-unit assessment:
  - Journals
  - Max Axiom: Details and Visual Elements graphic organizer, pages 1–4
  - Visual Elements of Graphic Novels reference page
  - Investigating the Scientific Method with Max Axiom Super Scientist
- Also make sure the Close Readers Do These Things and Vocabulary Strategies anchor charts are posted for student reference during the assessment.
- Distribute the Mid-Unit 1 Assessment: Analyzing Visual Elements in a Graphic Novel. Give students a minute to quickly scan the assessment.
- Be sure students notice the pages they will be reading for the assessment. All questions on this assessment can be answered by reading only pages 24–27 of Max Axiom.
- Address any clarifying questions.
- Give students approximately 30 minutes to work independently to complete the assessment questions.
- Circulate to supervise; since this is a formal, on-demand assessment, do not provide support other than formally approved accommodations.
- If students finish the assessment early, they may do the following:
  - Reread the entire graphic novel.
  - Work on completing the glossary in their journals by adding new words from the final section of Max Axiom that they just read for the Mid-Unit 1 Assessment, or add synonyms, phrases, and/or pictures to any words they have not had time to complete.

Meeting Students’ Needs

- ELLs receive extended time as an accommodation on New York State assessments.
B. Tracking My Progress: Reflecting on Learning (10 minutes)

- Introduce the learning target:

  > “I can reflect on my learning about how visual elements add meaning to the text and use a variety of strategies to determine the meaning of unfamiliar words and phrases.”

- Focus students on the word “reflect.” Ask for suggestions about what this word means. Listen for students to share:
  - “It means to look back at my work to think about what I did,” “how I did,” “what I am having trouble with,” “what I am doing well,” or similar responses.

- Distribute the Tracking My Progress: Mid-Unit 1 recording form. Explain that this is a self-assessment for students to use to reflect on their progress toward each of the learning targets. Read through the tracker and provide clarification as necessary.

- Ask students to independently complete their Tracking My Progress form. Ask them to hold on to this sheet to refer to during the debrief.

<tr>
<td>• Consider allowing students who struggle with written language to dictate their reflections to a partner or the teacher. This allows all students to participate in the self-reflection in a meaningful way.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Closing and Assessment

A. Debrief: Sharing Reflections on Learning Targets (10 minutes)
- Pair students up. Ask them to share their reflections from the Tracking My Progress form.
- Invite several students to share out whole group.
- Collect students’ Mid-Unit 1 Assessments and Tracking My Progress for review.

Meeting Students’ Needs
- Consider providing a sentence starter to ensure all students have access to the conversation: “On the _____ (first, second, third) target, I circled _____ because _____.”

Homework

- Reread the final four pages (24–27) of Max Axiom aloud to someone at home or to yourself.
- Discuss with someone which visual elements prompt you to read some parts differently than others (i.e., with excitement, with concern, like a professor lecturing to an audience).
- Read your independent reading book for at least 30 minutes and write a response to a fifth question from your Independent Reading Choice Board (from Lesson 1).

Note: Be prepared to return students’ Mid-Unit 1 Assessments by Lesson 9.

- Some students will benefit from having a “Phonics Phone” to use while reading aloud to more easily hear the inflection (or lack of) in their voice. Encourage students to continue practicing reading aloud until they are fluent enough to engage an audience with their reading.
- Allow struggling writers to dictate their responses to someone at home.
- Consider providing a recording of the text for struggling readers.

☐ remake

☐ adjust

☐ test again

b. What part of the word retest helped you to determine the meaning in 2a, and why?

________________________________________________________________________________________

c. Read the two dictionary definitions for the word approach below, and determine which is the correct definition based on how the word is used on page 26, “Each experiment is different, and each experiment requires a slightly different approach.”

b. Write a 2–3 sentence statement to analyze how at least two of the above visual elements help you understand that Max Axiom has a new problem to solve. Be sure to support your thinking with examples and evidence from the text.

Look for students to mention and describe two of the following examples:

- The ambient sound “beep” made me wonder if another problem was coming to Max because at the beginning of the book, the beep came from Mayor Richardson telling him about the flood problem.
- The speech bubble where Mayor Richardson is saying, “Looks like we’ve got another problem on our hands” confirmed my thinking.
- I can see there’s a problem with frogs because of the images of giant frogs on Max’s screen.
- The red button flashing makes me think there is an emergency, some kind of alert.
- The lines above Max’s head while he holds it with his hands show he is worried, confused, or concerned about a problem.
Learning Target: I can explain how visual elements add meaning to the description of the scientific problem Max Axiom will encounter next.

1. The target in my own words is:

2. How am I doing? Circle one.
