Tell It Again! Flip Book Introduction

This Tell It Again! Flip Book contains images that accompany the Tell It Again! Read-Aloud Anthology for The U.S. Civil War. The images are in sequential order. Each image is identified by its lesson number, read-aloud letter (A or B), and the number of the image within the particular read-aloud. For example, the first image in Read-Aloud 1A is numbered 1A-1. Once you have worked your way through the book to the last page, you will flip the entire book over to view the second half of the images.

Depending on your classroom configuration, you may need to have students sit closer to the flip book in order to see the images clearly.

These materials are the result of the work, advice, and encouragement of numerous individuals over many years. Some of those singled out here already know the depth of our gratitude; others may be surprised to find themselves thanked publicly for help they gave quietly and generously for the sake of the enterprise alone. To helpers named and unnamed we are deeply grateful.

Contributors to Earlier Versions of These Materials

We would like to extend special recognition to Program Directors Matthew Davis and Susananne Wright who were instrumental to the early development of this program.

We are truly grateful to the teachers, students, and administration of the following schools for their willingness to field test these materials and for their invaluable advice: Capitol Hill Elementary, Challenge Foundation Academy (NY), Community Academy Public Charter School, Lake-Lure Classical Academy, Leopold Elementary School, New Holland Core Knowledge Academy, Paramount School of Excellence, Pioneer Challenge Foundation Academy, New York City PS 28 (The Carver School), PS 305 (Wilborn School), PS 509 (Clara Barton School), PS 902 (102nd Joseph C. UNITED STATES' INTERNAL SLAVE TRADE.
"Hail Columbia, Happy Land!"

PLAN FOR THE ABOLITION OF SLAVERY.

It is considered expedient to republish the following, as many who patronized this work at present, have never had an opportunity of seeing it.

For the purpose of effecting a gradual Abolition of Slavery in the United States, I would propose:

First. That the General government totally prohibit it in the districts over which Congress possesses the exclusive control, to prevent its spreading over a greater extent of country, and consequently increasing in magnitude; and for the purpose of guarding more effectually against its extension, let a positive injunction be issued against the admission of any new state into the Union, hereafter, without an express provision against slavery in its Constitution.

Secondly. To prevent smuggling slaves into the country from abroad, to put a stop to the domestic or internal "slave trade," and also to prevent the
