Long-Term Targets Addressed (Based on NYSP12 ELA CCLS)

I can determine the meaning of literal and figurative language (metaphors and similes) in literary text. (RL.6.4)

I can analyze how an author's word choice affects tone and meaning in a literary text. (RL.6.4)

I can analyze figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in word meanings. (L.6.5)

Supporting Learning Targets

- I can explain how the author's word choice affects tone and meaning in the novel.
- I can determine the meaning of figurative language in Bud, Not Buddy.

Ongoing Assessment

- Entrance ticket: What Would You Title Chapter 4?
- Selected Response Questions, Chapter 4 of Bud, Not Buddy
- Figurative Language in Bud, Not Buddy graphic organizer

Students continue using the Figurative Language in Bud, Not Buddy graphic organizer to analyze figurative language from the novel, now without any modeling or input from the teacher. This increased independence will help prepare them for the mid-unit assessment in Lesson 5. • In Lesson 2, students answered selected response questions about word choice in triads. Now they will independently answer selected response questions, then discuss their answers with their triads to scaffold for Lesson 5. • Post: Learning targets, Strategies for Selected Response Questions anchor chart.

Lesson Vocabulary	Materials
word choice, tone, meaning, figurative language; tortured	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bud, Not Buddy (book; one per student) • Entrance ticket: “What Would You Title Chapter 4?” (one per student) • Figurative Language in Bud, Not Buddy graphic organizer (from Lesson 2; students’ copies and one for display) • Bud, Not Buddy: Chapter 4 Figurative Language (one per student) • Strategies for Answering Selected Response Questions anchor chart (from Lesson 2) • Selected Response Questions, Chapter 4 of Bud, Not Buddy (one per student) • Selected Response Questions, Chapter 4 of Bud, Not Buddy (Suggested Answers, for Teacher Reference)

Opening	Meeting Students' Needs
A. Entrance Ticket: What Would You Title Chapter 4? (8 minutes) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Invite students to get into triads to share their answers to the homework questions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * “What did Bud do to Todd? Why did he do it?” • Cold call students to share their answers. • Display and distribute the entrance ticket: What Would You Title Chapter 4? Invite students to discuss in their triads: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * “What happened in Chapter 4?” • Ask them to choose a title for Chapter 4 and record it on their entrance ticket. • Provide a model for students to support their thinking and conversations. For example, you might suggest titling Chapter 3 “The Shed” because most of what happens in the chapter happens in the shed. • Refocus the whole class and cold call a few students to share their titles and their reason for choosing that title with the whole group. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Displaying directions helps all students focus on the task and follow steps for increased success, but it especially helps those students who need information in small chunks. • Consider placing ELLs in homogeneous pairs to discuss the title of the chapter.
B. Unpacking Learning Targets (2 minutes) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Invite the class to read the learning targets with you: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * “I can explain how the author’s word choice affects tone and meaning in the novel.” * “I can determine the meaning of figurative language in Bud, Not Buddy.” • Remind students that these are the same targets they have been working with for three days. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Careful attention to learning targets throughout a lesson engages, supports, and holds students accountable for their learning. Consider revisiting learning targets throughout the lesson so that students can connect their learning with the activity they are working on.

Work Time	Meeting Students' Needs
A. Writing: Interpreting Figurative Language in Bud, Not Buddy (10 minutes) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Display and invite students to take out the Figurative Language in Bud, Not Buddy graphic organizer (from Lesson 2). Review the example recorded in Lesson 2 to remind students how to fill out the organizer. • Distribute Bud, Not Buddy: Chapter 4 Figurative Language. Pair students up and ask them to analyze the figurative language examples and fill out the Figurative Language graphic organizer. • Circulate to assist students in reading the excerpts and analyzing the figurative language. Ask: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * “What does the figurative language mean literally?” * “What does the excerpt tell you about Bud?” • Invite students to get into triads to share their analyses. • Cold call students to share their analyses with the whole class. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Providing feedback specific to the learning target that identifies both a success and a next step helps students set concrete goals for reaching learning targets. • Providing sentence starters and sentence frames helps students develop group speaking skills and encourages them to use evidence in their claim.
B. Read-aloud of Excerpt from Chapter 4 and Completion of Selected Response Questions (20 minutes) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Direct students' attention to the blank Strategies for Answering Selected Response Questions anchor chart. Invite them to read the bullet points with you. • Distribute Selected Response Questions, Chapter 4 of Bud, Not Buddy. Tell students that all the questions are from an excerpt of the text on page 32. • Review the questions with students. Remind them that each question has multiple parts. The first part of the question asks them to identify the meaning of a word. The second part asks them to consider how that word choice affects the tone or meaning of the text. • Invite students to open their copies of Bud, Not Buddy to page 32. As they follow along, read aloud from “I can’t all the way blame ...” to “... didn’t have to put up with Todd.” • Give students the next 10 minutes to work independently on the selected response questions. • Circulate and support students as they work. One way to support them in thinking about a word’s effect on meaning or tone is to have them consider how the sentence would be different without that single word, or with another word in its place. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Asking students to provide feedback to their peers helps them clarify their learning. • Consider providing select students with scaffolding for Question 4 of the selected response questions by letting them know that Bud feels two different emotions about foster homes.

Closing and Assessment	Meeting Students' Needs
A. Discussion of Selected Response Question (5 minutes) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Invite students to look more closely at Question 4. Ask them to Think-Pair-Share: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * “What are the two feelings he has, and what does this tell us about Bud?” * “How does this moment in the novel help us understand human beings more?” • Refocus the class and invite a few students to share, as time permits. Listen for comments about considering different perspectives and trying to understand each other more. Refer to Selected Response Questions, Chapter 4 of Bud, Not Buddy (Suggested Answers, for Teacher Reference).
Homework	Meeting Students' Needs
A. Read Chapter 5 of Bud, Not Buddy. Identify the rules Bud refers to in the chapter and add to the Tracking Bud's Rules graphic organizer. Use your evidence flags to mark any details in the text that help you think about what this rule means and how Bud uses it. Note: In Lesson 5, students reread an excerpt of Chapter 5, fill out a graphic organizer, and answer short constructed response questions for their mid-unit assessment. Prepare any accommodations students require to complete this assessment.

Learning Target: I can analyze how an author’s word choice affects tone and meaning in a literary text. (RL.6.4)

Read the passage below and the questions. Circle the best answer for each question.

I can't all the way blame Todd for giving me trouble, though. If I had a regular home with a mother and father I wouldn't be too happy about other kids living in my house either.

Being unhappy about it is one thing, but torturing the kids who are there even though they don't want to be is another. It was my job to make sure other kids who didn't know where their mothers and fathers were didn't have to put up with Todd.

1. In the passage above, what does torturing mean?

- A. Causing pain and suffering
- B. Teasing and making fun of
- C. Punching and beating up
- D. Lying and cheating

2. What does Bud mean by a “regular home”?

- A. A home with two parents
- B. A home with hot running water
- C. A home with a shotgun in the kitchen
- D. A home with a two boys

1. In the passage above, what does torturing mean?
 - A. Causing pain and suffering
 - B. Teasing and making fun of
 - C. Punching and beating up
 - D. Lying and cheating

2. What does Bud mean by a “regular home”?
 - A. A home with two parents
 - B. A home with hot running water
 - C. A home with a shotgun in the kitchen
 - D. A home with a two boys

3. What does it show the reader about Bud when he says it is his “job” to prevent other kids from having the experience he had?
 - A. Bud does not want to become a bully like Todd.
 - B. Bud feels a sense of responsibility to other foster kids.
 - C. Bud expects to have to pay for the trouble he caused.
 - D. Bud does not know where his mother and father are.

4. What does this passage teach the reader about Bud’s feelings toward foster homes? Use evidence from the passage to support your answer.

That Bud thinks foster homes are tough because the foster children are sometimes bullied by the children of the family who don’t understand what it is like to be a foster child. He says, “If I had a regular home with a mother and father I wouldn’t be too happy about other kids living in my house either.”
