Introduction

In this lesson, students read and analyze a section from chapter 16 of The Autobiography of Malcolm X, pages 305–309 (from “I remembered that when an epidemic is about to hit” to “if not actually initiated—by only one man”), in which Malcolm X details his struggles within the Nation of Islam after the paternity scandals of Elijah Muhammad. Student learning is assessed via a Quick Write at the end the lesson: Analyze how style and content contribute to the power or beauty in chapter 16.

For homework, students continue to read and annotate chapter 16 of The Autobiography of Malcolm X. Students also develop discussion questions focused on how the structure of the text makes points clear, convincing, and engaging.

Assessment

Assessment(s)

Student learning is assessed via a Quick Write at the end of the lesson. Students respond to the following prompt, citing textual evidence to support analysis and inferences drawn from the text.

- Analyze how style and content contribute to the power or beauty in chapter 16.

High Performance Response(s)

A High Performance Response should:

- Identify examples of stylistic choices (e.g., varied syntax, figurative language, etc.).
- Identify examples of content choices (e.g., the event of Malcolm X’s visit with Elijah Muhammad in Arizona).
- Analyze how style contributes to the power or beauty of the text (e.g., Malcolm X uses the figurative language of the “epidemic” (p. 305) to engage the reader with Malcolm X’s struggle with the Nation of Islam by making it seem dangerous and life threatening. Malcolm X states that he “never dreamed” (p. 306) that his officials would turn on him by making it appear that Malcolm X had “started” the rumors about Elijah Muhammad. In addition, Malcolm X states that “many times since then” he has looked back on the events surrounding his separation from the Nation of Islam (p. 307). He states that it “makes me feel weary to think of it all now” (p. 308). This language makes this section quite powerful as the reader sees the direct impact of these events on Malcolm X’s future life as he struggles to define himself as separate from the Nation of Islam.).
- Analyze how content contributes to the power or beauty of the text (e.g., The way the author reveals information about Malcolm X’s struggles with the Nation of Islam piece by piece, as if uncovering a mystery, contributes to the tension and suspense of the story by allowing the reader to feel like an active participant in uncovering the dangerous plot. The reader continues to piece together this plot as Malcolm X reveals his suspicion that he is “being set up” and engages in “death-talk” (p. 309). By revealing this suspicion and hinting at Malcolm X’s death, the author keeps the reader engaged in figuring out what might happen to Malcolm X, which increases the power and tension of this section.).

Activity 1: Introduction of Lesson Agenda 5%

Begin by reviewing the agenda and the assessed standard for this lesson: RI.11-12.6. In this lesson, students read and discuss pages 305–309 of chapter 16 of The Autobiography of Malcolm X focusing on the author’s use of style and content.

Activity 2: Homework Accountability 15%

Instruct students to take out their responses to the previous lesson’s homework assignment. (Read and annotate pages 294–309 in The Autobiography of Malcolm X (from “In nineteen-sixty one, Mr. Muhammad’s condition” to “if not actually initiated—by only one man”). Develop 2–3 discussion questions focused on how style and content contribute to the power or beauty of the text (RI.11.12.6). Prepare possible answers to your questions for discussion.)

Instruct students to talk in pairs about the questions they developed for homework, specifically analyzing how style and content contribute to the power and beauty of the text (RI.11-12.6).
Student questions may include:

How does the author establish Malcolm X’s opinion of Elijah Muhammad in this chapter?

Student responses may include:

- Malcolm X states that “[T]he Nation of Islam was Mr. Muhammad” (p. 294), suggesting that Mr. Muhammad is so central to the organization that he is in fact the organization.
- Malcolm X calls Mr. Muhammad “the beacon” and states, “without his light, we would all be in darkness” (p. 295). A “beacon” is a powerful light that guides those in darkness, so with this image Malcolm X is suggesting that Mr. Muhammad is a powerful guide to those in need of direction.
- Malcolm X describes Elijah Muhammad as “the man who had trained me, who had treated me as if I were his own flesh and blood” (p. 305). The phrase “flesh and blood” indicates that Malcolm X feels like he is part of Mr. Muhammad’s family.
- Malcolm X describes Mr. Muhammad as “the man who had given me wings—to go places, to do things I otherwise never would have dreamed of” (p. 305). Because Malcolm X’s “wings” have taken him all around the country as a powerful minister in the Nation of Islam, this example shows that Malcolm X gives Mr. Muhammad the credit for the public figure he has become.

Student responses should include:

- Through these examples of figurative language, the author vividly establishes Elijah Muhammad as a very important person in Malcolm X’s life and a person who Malcolm X views as vital to the Nation of Islam.

What does Elijah Muhammad imply with the statement, “I’m David” (p. 305)?

He compares himself to the biblical figures that Malcolm X researched, implying that he was fated to have his affairs. He tells Malcolm X, “that’s what all of this is—prophecy” (p. 305) and explains, “I have to fulfill all of those things” (p. 305). This statement implies not only were his acts beyond his control, but that he is an important religious figure, comparable to Noah or David.

If student discussion is rich, text-dependent, and building toward the assessment prompt, consider extending the discussions beyond the allotted time. Then lead a brief whole-class discussion using any additional Reading and Discussion questions necessary to ensure students are prepared for the assessment. (Key questions are marked with an asterisk.*)
Activity 3: Reading and Discussion

Instruct students to form pairs. Post or project each set of questions below for students to discuss.

1. If necessary to support comprehension and fluency, consider using a masterful reading of the focus excerpt for the lesson.

Instruct student pairs to read pages 305–307 (from “I remembered that when an epidemic is about to hit” to “true color of great men of antiquity”) and answer the following questions before sharing out with the class.

Instruct students to continue to annotate for examples of stylistic or content choices. Remind students that annotating helps them to keep track of evidence they use later in lesson assessments that focus on the how style and content contribute to power and beauty in the text.

1. Consider drawing students’ attention to their application of standard W.11-12.9.b through the process of drawing evidence from the text to support reflection and analysis.

1. Differentiation Consideration: Students may use the Style and Content Tool to record stylistic or content choices they identify and discuss.

1. Differentiation Consideration: Consider posting or projecting the following guiding question to support students throughout the lesson:

   How does the author use certain words to make the text more powerful or beautiful? What effect does this language have on pages 305–307?

Provide students with the following definition: antiquity means “ancient times; former ages.”

1. Students may be familiar with this word. Consider asking students to volunteer definitions before providing it to the class.

   - Students write the definition of antiquity on their copies of the text or in a vocabulary journal.

What is the “epidemic” for which Malcolm X prepares (p. 305)? What words and phrases suggest the meaning of the word epidemic in this context?

   - Student responses should include:

   - The “epidemic” refers to the spread of news about the “fulfillment of prophecy” (p. 306), meaning the numerous affairs that Elijah Muhammad had with his secretaries.

   - Malcolm X mentions that people get “inoculated against exposure” to an epidemic and that they are treated with “the same germs” that cause it and “this prepares them to resist the oncoming virus” (p. 305). The context makes it seem like an epidemic is a large outbreak of a sickness or disease.
What does Malcolm X do to “inoculate[]” the temple (p. 305)? What does the word inoculated mean in this context?

- Student responses should include:
  - He tells “six other East Coast Muslim officials” (p. 305) about the details of Elijah Muhammad’s actions to ensure they are not “caught by surprise” (p. 305) if they need to teach the “fulfillment of prophecy” (p. 306) and explain Elijah Muhammad’s actions.
  - Malcolm X explains that it is something that is done to help prevent the spread of a disease or sickness. Malcolm X states that it uses “the same germs that are anticipated” (p. 305), so inoculated appears to be something done to prevent the sickness.

Consider drawing students’ attention to their work with L.11-12.4.a as they use context clues to determine the meaning of a word.

What does Malcolm X’s use of figurative language suggest about his feelings towards Elijah Muhammad’s actions?

- Malcolm X is worried about the fallout of the actions of Elijah Muhammad and the danger that this fallout might pose to the Nation of Islam. Malcolm X frames the danger that fellow Muslims will discover Elijah Muhammad’s infidelities as an “epidemic” against which everyone must be “inoculated” to prevent the spread of “the oncoming virus” (p. 305).

What does Malcolm X mean when he says that Chicago Muslim officials might “make it appear that I was throwing gasoline on the fire instead of water” (p. 306)?

- Malcolm X implies that the Chicago officials might give the appearance that Malcolm X was spreading word about the infidelities in order to “shift their focus off the epidemic” (p. 306) and onto Malcolm X.

How does the figurative language describing Elijah Muhammad’s actions affect the power of this section?

- The metaphor of the “epidemic” engages the reader by setting up a grim scenario for the future in which many people are “infected” by the knowledge of Elijah Muhammad’s actions. The use of the “epidemic” (p. 305) metaphor contributes to the power of the section by making Malcolm X’s situation seem dangerous and frantic as he races to “inoculate[]” (p. 305) those close to him. Relating the spread of Elijah Muhammad’s actions to the spread of a deadly virus helps to engage the reader and connect them to a powerful sense of urgency.

Consider drawing students’ attention to their application of standard L.11-12.5.a through the process of using context to interpret the meaning and role of figurative language in the text.
Lead a brief whole-class discussion of student responses.

Differentiation Consideration: Students may use their Character Development Tools to record Malcolm X’s development that they identify and discuss.

Instruct students to read pages 307–309 (from “I’ve said that I expected headlines momentarily” to “true color of great men of antiquity”) and answer the following questions before sharing out with the class.

Remind students to continue to annotate for rhetorical devices (RD).

Differentiation Consideration: Students may use their Character Development Tools to record Malcolm X’s development that they identify and discuss.

If necessary to aid student comprehension explain to students that the statement “who got assassinated in Dallas, Texas, on November 22, 1963” (p. 307) is a reference to the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Provide students with the following definitions: personages means “people of distinction or importance” and amiability means “having or showing pleasant, good-natured personal qualities.”

Students may be familiar with these words. Consider asking students to volunteer definitions before providing them to the group.

- Students write the definitions of personages and amiability on their copies of the text or in a vocabulary journal.

Differentiation Consideration: Consider providing students with the following definitions: hypocritical means “pretending to believe what one does not believe,” sow means “to cause (fear, doubt, etc.) to affect many people,” and reap means “to get (something, such as a reward) as a result of something that you have done.”

- Students write the definitions of hypocritical, sow, and reap on their copies of the text or in a vocabulary journal.

What is the topic of Malcolm X’s speech on page 307? How might this topic be controversial at this time?

Malcolm X explains the title was “‘God’s Judgment of White America’” and the theme was “‘as you sow, so shall you reap’” (p. 307). The subject is the judgment of white America for the “hate” it has caused. Because the president had just been assassinated and was the only topic of news, Malcolm X’s speech topic might suggest that the president deserved what he got.

Differentiation Consideration: Consider explaining what is meant by the proverb “as you sow, so shall you reap.” Translate the phrase to “you harvest what you plant.” Ask students to consider what this metaphor could mean in the context of Malcolm X’s speech. If necessary, explain that the proverb means that everything that happens is a result of one’s own actions.

What tone does Malcolm X create with the statement, “Many times since then, I’ve looked at the speech notes I used that day” (p. 307)?

- By implying that he has continued to think for many years about his speech, Malcolm’s statement suggests something memorable is about to happen within an already tense national climate, which creates a sense of uncertainty or foreboding.

How does the detail that the speech “had been prepared at least a week before the assassination” (p. 307) impact the reader’s understanding of the speech and the public’s response?

- This detail establishes that the speech was not written in response to the assassination. Malcolm X’s theme that the “hypocritical American white man” (p. 307) was getting what he deserved was not directly related to the president’s death. The fact that Malcolm X clarifies this point suggests that the public might have thought the speech was written in response to the assassination.

Why is Malcolm X “weary to think of it all now” (p. 308)?

- When Malcolm X states that he is “weary to think of it all now,” he is implying that he is tired of thinking about the events that led up to his silencing. The word “weary” also conveys impatience or dissatisfaction, which Malcolm X demonstrates in his claim that the public condemnation of him was unfair. He argues that other people all over the world said “that America’s climate of hate had been responsible for the President’s death” (p. 308). However, Malcolm X’s words had negative consequences for him and the Nation of Islam because “when Malcolm X said the same thing, it was ominous” (p. 308).

What about Malcolm X’s speech could be considered “ominous” (p. 308)?

- Malcolm X was giving a speech about “‘God’s Judgment of White America’” (p. 307) right after the assassination of the president. The speech implies that violence is the result of white America’s actions and it coincides with the murder of a man whom the country “‘loved’” (p. 308). As Malcolm X and the members of the Nation of Islam were considered by many to be dangerous, an aggressive speech from Malcolm X on the topic of “‘God’s Judgment of White America’” would have seemed ominous.

1 Differentiation Consideration: If necessary, consider reminding students of their work with the word ominous in 12.1.1 Lesson 17.
What is the outcome of Malcolm X’s meeting with Elijah Muhammad (p. 308)? What is the reason for this outcome?

- Malcolm X is silenced for “ninety days” (p. 308) as a result of telling the press he thought President Kennedy’s murder was “a case of ‘the chickens coming home to roost’” (p. 307). Elijah Muhammad explains that the silencing is so that “‘Muslims everywhere can be disassociated from the blunder’” of Malcolm X’s statement (p. 308). Elijah Muhammad suggests that Malcolm X is being punished so that the American public will not be upset with the Nation of Islam.

What does Malcolm X mean by the statement “my ‘silencing’ was even more thorough than I had thought” (p. 309)?

- Malcolm X means that his silencing goes beyond just his interactions with the press. He is “forbidden to talk with the press,” but he is also “not even to teach” (p. 309) within his own mosque.

What makes Malcolm X “suspicious” about his treatment (p. 309)? Why does Malcolm X think he is being “set up” (p. 309)?

- Malcolm X is suspicious because of the deliberate misinformation being spread about him. The Nation released a statement that implied that Malcolm X is not submitting to the judgment of Elijah Muhammad, even though he said that he will “submit, one hundred per cent” (p. 308). The Nation of Islam states that he will be reinstated “if he submits” (p. 309), which the author italicizes to emphasize his suspicions and to show that Malcolm X believes that he is being set up and painted in a negative light.

Differentiation Consideration: If necessary to aid student comprehension consider asking students the following questions:

What does Malcolm X mean by the statement “I hadn’t hustled in the streets for years for nothing” (p. 309)?

- Malcolm X is suggesting that something underhanded is happening. Because Malcolm X learned how to con and fool others as a criminal and hustler he is able to see when others are trying to trick him. He knows that he is being set up for something.

Differentiation Consideration: Students may use their Character Development Tools to record Malcolm X’s development that they identify and discuss.

How does Malcolm X’s choice not to name the “one man” (p. 309) contribute to the power of the section?
Referring to Elijah Muhammad only as “one man” heightens the power of the section by building a sense of mystery within the text. Right after Malcolm X reveals that his assistant is encouraging Mosque Seven brothers to “kill him yourself” (p. 309), he explains that he “instantly” knows who the “one man” (p. 309) is but withholds his name. The reader must then fill in the blanks and come to the conclusion of Elijah Muhammad’s identity much like Malcolm X did. Involving the reader makes the section more powerful by relating the reader’s reaction to Malcolm X’s.

Differentiation Consideration: If students struggle to answer this question, pose the following question to support their understanding.

Who is the “one man” who could have started any “death talk” (p. 309)?

Malcolm X implies that Elijah Muhammad is the “one man” (p. 309). He states that “any official in the Nation of Islam” (p. 309) would have known that only “one man” could have approved “death-talk” about Malcolm X (p. 309). Elijah Muhammad knows that Malcolm X “completely submitted” (p. 309), so he must be the person who is spreading the misinformation.

How does the author increase the tension of Malcolm X’s situation on pages 308 and 309?

Student responses may include:

- The author uses varied syntax to make the section seem tense and exciting. Short sentences like “Malcolm X Silenced! It was headlines” (p. 309) help to communicate the tension that Malcolm X is feeling.
- The author uses phrases like “made me suspicious” and “[b]ut, deliberately” (p. 309) in reference to the actions of the Nation of Islam after Malcolm X’s silencing. This language increases the tension because it is nonspecific and creates mystery and concern for who is trying to hurt or even kill Malcolm X.

Lead a brief whole-class discussion of student responses.

Differentiation Consideration: Students may use the Style and Content Tool to record stylistic or content choices they identify and discuss.

Activity 4: Quick Write

Instruct students to respond briefly in writing to the following prompt:

Analyze how style and content contribute to the power or beauty in chapter 16.
Instruct students to look at their annotations to find evidence. Ask students to use this lesson’s vocabulary wherever possible in their written responses. Remind students to use the Short Response Rubric and Checklist to guide their written responses.

- Students listen and read the Quick Write prompt.

1. Display the prompt for students to see, or provide the prompt in hard copy.

Transition to the independent Quick Write.

- Students independently answer the prompt using evidence from the text.

2. See the High Performance Response at the beginning of this lesson.

Activity 5: Closing

Display and distribute the homework assignment. For homework, instruct students to read and annotate pages 309–324 in The Autobiography of Malcolm X (from “My head felt like it was bleeding inside” to “Ella said, ‘How much do you need?’”). Instruct students to develop 2–3 discussion questions focused on how the structure of the text makes points clear, convincing, and engaging (RI.11-12.5). Instruct students to prepare possible answers to their questions for discussion.

- Students follow along.

1. For Accountable Independent Writing homework, instruct students to continue drafting their personal narratives. Students may continue the draft they have been working on or choose to respond to a new Common Application prompt. Remind students to focus on a variety of techniques to sequence events so that they build on one another to create a coherent whole and build toward a particular tone and outcome (e.g., a sense of mystery, suspense, growth, or resolution).

Students may post their drafts to the class’s online writing community and be paired for peer review. Remind peer reviewers to consider how effectively their peer uses a variety of techniques to sequence events so that they build on one another to create a coherent whole and build toward a particular tone and outcome (e.g., a sense of mystery, suspense, growth, or resolution).

Consider maintaining the same peer review pairs through 12.1.1 Lesson 24 so that students can provide and receive consistent feedback from a peer familiar with their work in relation to W.11-12.3.c.

Homework

Read and annotate pages 309–324 in The Autobiography of Malcolm X (from “My head felt like it was bleeding inside” to “Ella said, ‘How much do you need?’”). Develop 2–3 discussion questions focused on how the structure of the text makes points clear, convincing, and engaging (RI.11-12.5). Prepare possible answers to your questions for discussion.
Model Style and Content Tool

Name: | Class: | Date: |

Directions: Use this tool to track the stylistic or content choices you encounter in the text, as well as examples and explanations of these choices. Be sure to note the rhetorical effect of each choice on the text.

RI.11-12.6: Determine an author’s point of view or purpose in a text in which the rhetoric is particularly effective, analyzing how style and content contribute to the power, persuasiveness, or beauty of the text.

Rhetoric: the specific techniques that writers or speakers use to create meaning in a text, enhance a text or a lecture, and often, persuade readers or listeners

Style: how the author expresses content, which frequently includes the use of figurative language or rhetorical devices

Content: what the author writes, including events, ideas, and details the author chooses to include

Point of View: an author’s opinion, attitude, or judgment

Purpose: an author’s reason for writing
