Shift 4:

Text Based Answers

The discussion addresses what it takes to create opportunities for students to have deep, evidence-based conversations about text.

What is Shift 4?
What will this mean we have to change about our practice?
What challenges will we face as we make this shift? What are the implications for teacher planning and for teacher planning time in schools? What questions will take the students deeper into this text and cause them to pay careful attention to it?
